THE SECOND ANNUAL

INTERNATIONAL NEW MUSIC COMPETITION

THE SAMUEL ADLER GRAND PRIZE: $1,500 USD

The Samuel Adler Grand Prize includes a cash prize of $1,500, a travel stipend, and a live performance in Southern California featuring distinguished Chamber Music | OC guest and resident artists. The performance will also be professionally recorded and filmed by Lenson Productions.

California Love Prize for best work by a composer residing in California: $200
Emerging Artist Prize for best work by a composer age 25 and under: $200
International Prize for best work by a composer residing outside of the USA: $200
Trio Céleste Prize for best work for violin, cello, and piano: $200
Wonder Woman Prize for best work by a female composer: $200

Application fee: $40 | Deadline: July 31st, 2019

JURY PANEL:

Samuel Adler, Former Faculty, The Juilliard School; Eastman School of Music
Vera Ivanova, Faculty, Chapman University; The Colburn School; Chamber Music | OC Pre-College
Cristina Spinei, Co-Founder, Blind Ear Music

Works must be no longer than 15 minutes in length, and for between 2 and 10 performers. Any identifying features on submitted documents must be removed or blocked out.

For more details, visit chambermusicoc.org/newmusic